The Space Around You

The bar's pink, egg-shaped room was inspired by a Fabergé jewel box and is framed with four art panels that depict the Camellia flower. Reflective finishes, including an etched-mirror ceiling and beautiful strings of crystals cascading from a chandelier, that adds shimmer and style to the atmosphere.

Camellias' stunning hue cleverly utilizes marble that once clad the former Charleston public library building where Hotel Bennett now stands. The marble, reclaimed and restored, now graces the bar and tabletops.
